

NNU Rally in New York City

END AUSTERITY.

PASS THE ROBIN HOOD TAX.

Against the backdrop of the United Nations and on the eve of Occupy Wall Street's 2nd anniversary, labor and community activists will rally to demand an end to austerity and to insist on full funding of human needs both locally and globally.

When: Tuesday, September 17, 2013

Where: New York City

Time for Rally: 5 p.m.

The bus will leave MNA Headquarters in Canton at 6:00 am and make a pick up stop at approx 6:45 am at the park and ride in Millbury, exit 10A off the Mass Pike. (Millbury, Rte 20). So you can either board the bus in Canton or Millbury.

Our scheduled arrival in New York City will be at approximately 11:00 am. You will have from 11:00 am to 4:45pm on your own. We will meet up again at 4:45pm at Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, United Nations for the rally and march to JP Morgan Chase Headquarters, the Metropolitan Transit Authority Headquarters, and then to Bryant Park.

We will board the bus back to Massachusetts immediately following the rally. Please wear a red NNU scrub top if you have one or if not an MNA one. Walking will be a major component of the rally and march so please wear comfortable shoes and be prepared for changes in the weather.

If you are interested in going please call Dolores Neves at 781-830-5722 or email her at DNeves@mnarn.org. Seats will be by space availability.
